

Lodge Facts & Rates

Location

Clayoquot Wilderness Lodge sits amongst the lush coastal rainforest of remote Vancouver Island in British Columbia, Canada. Surrounded by the UNESCO listed Clayoquot Sound Biosphere, and flanking the pristine Strathcona Provincial Park, the 600 acre property sits at the head of the Bedwell River making it an ideal location to explore the wilds of the Island. Inaccessible by car, the lodge is reached by a 45 minute seaplane flight from Vancouver, or 35 minute boat ride from Tofino.

Climate

The temperate rainforests that dominate the landscape and ecosystem at Clayoquot Sound also drive the weather systems. While the region generally receives rain that sustains its forests, in summertime the conditions are warm and quite dry, ideal for marine sports and outdoor activities and making summer and shoulder months an ideal time to visit.

Season	Average daytime temp	Average overnight temp
Summer (June-August)	15-19°C (59-66°F)	11-13°C (52-55°F)
Fall (September-November)	13-17°C (55-62°F)	6-10°C (43-50°F)
Winter (December-February)	5-8°C (41-46°F)	2-4°C (36-39°F)
Spring (March-May)	9-14°C (48-57°F)	5-10°C (41-50°F)

Getting there

What to bring

Reflecting the adventurous nature of the Pacific Northwest wilderness, dress is relaxed at Clayoquot Wilderness Lodge. Solid walking shoes, comfortable clothes, layers for warmth, and a rain jacket are recommended. A hat and sunscreen are every day essentials.

Stay

Accommodation

Twenty-five luxuriously appointed white canvas tents in the style of turn-of-the-century prospectors, line the banks of the magnificent Clayoquot Sound and are dotted among the region's pristine old growth temperate rainforest. A Baillie Lodges-led reimagining of the tents' interiors brings a fresh new contemporary look to the accommodations with signature clean lines, generous appointments and pared back, refined luxury. End-of-the-bed views and specially commissioned furnishings from local designers evoke a personal connection with the Vancouver Island landscape.

Rainforest Deluxe Tent

Rainforest Deluxe tents are enveloped in the cool reserves of old and new growth forest and feature generous king beds dressed in fine cloth linens and a signature Baillie Lodges Bemboka blanket plus double convertible sofa bed. A separate private bathroom is located just steps outside the tent and includes a shower and luxurious heated floors. Each tent features desk space, a cast iron heated stove, and opens to a verandah with traditional Adirondack chairs made for relaxing with a book and drinking in the view.

Waterfront Deluxe Tent

Clayoquot's Waterfront Deluxe tents line the banks of the sound and offer sweeping views of the ocean and Bedwell River. The tents welcome in the rising sun each morning and feature private decks. The Waterfront Deluxe tents include a luxurious king bed that can be split into two king single beds and a double sofa bed. Flexible bedding options make this a popular choice for the in-laws or as a children's tent on family holiday stays. A private bathroom, located separately just steps outside the tent features a shower and luxurious heated floors.

Check-in / Check-out

Check-in and check-out days are on Sundays and Thursdays only. Check-in time is 3.30pm. Check-out time is 12 pm. Early check-in and late check-out are subject to availability - surcharge may apply. Guests arriving or departing outside standard check-in or check-out times are welcome to enjoy the lodge facilities.
